

A Hole-In-One For Literacy!

Over $12,000.00 was raised for literacy in the NWT at the 2002 PGI Golf Tournament for Literacy held June 5 – 7 in Fort Simpson.

Many thanks to everyone who made the events such a success:

Our Special Guests

Sheree Fitch
Alison Gzowski
Dakota House
Richard Van Camp
Premier Stephen Kakfwi
Honorable Jim Antoine, MLA

Ft. Simpson Organizing Committee

Ken Brown
Barry Church
Leah Keats
Aaron McNab
Heather Passmore
Val Stark
Barb Tsetso
Teresa Watson

Chevron Canada Resources
NWT Power Corporation
Mack Travel
CIBC
Avery Cooper Financial Corp.
Northwestel

NWT Sponsors

National Sponsors

Air Canada
Canada Post Corporation
Petro-Canada
Great West Life – London Life
The Co-operators
Epson

National Contributors

First Air
Famous Players
McClelland & Stewart
Tiger Brand Knitting
Ottawa Citizen

Ft. Simpson Contributors

Nahanni Inn
Seven Spruce Tree Golf Club
Deh Cho Friendship Centre
Liidlil Koe First Nation
Village of Ft. Simpson
Deh Cho Divisional Education Council
Anglican Church Women
Thomas Simpson School
Cherokee Enterprises
John Tsetso Memorial Library
Sharon & John Herring Sales
Wally Watson
Ft. Simpson Volunteer Fire Department

Ft. Simpson Historical Society
Great Slave Helicopters
Wolverine Air
O'Hare Knives
Deh Cho hardware
Ekuinox
John Tsetso
Open Sky Society
Randy Sibbeston
Senga Services
Natsenelu
TG Wilson
Tracey the photographer

The NWT Literacy Council also extends its thanks to the Department of Education, Culture & Employment, the Office of the Premier and the National Literacy Secretariat for their support.

2002 PGI Golf Tournament for Literacy