

L-R: Connie Kaldor, Jonathan Torrens, Premier Joe Handley, Snowking (aka Anthony Foliot), Shelagh Rogers, Mike Stevens and Alison Gzowski.

Rapper Ice Tea...

The late Peter Gzowski requested that each PGI appoint a Poet Laureate to capture the day in words. Shelagh Rogers, Alison Gzowski, Jonathan Torrens, Mike Stevens and Connie Kaldor shared the honours for the 2006 NWT PGI Golf Tournament for Literacy held at the Snowking's Winter Castle on the frozen ice of Yellowknife Bay and composed the following rap poem/song.

Performed by Jonathan Torrens (aka J-Roc) at the NWT PGI's closing dinner hosted by NWT Premier Joe Handley.

First thing
Thanks to the SnowKing
Whose castle on Saturday night began melting
First a turret
And then the whole west wing
Now, no one was hurrrrrrt
But that's not the best thing

The best thing was Premier Joe Handley
Who played on the course today really quite dandily
But he was just one of the great group of nice souls
A warm bunch of golfers surrounded by ice holes

It was Gzowski's idea to come play in the North
But golf on the ice?.. that's not a sporth
Until Brad, Cate and others came forth
And a company named First Air lent their supportth

We putted, we played, we laughed til we cried
We gorged on bannock and raised money with pride
From Alison, Shelagh, Mike, Connie and me
We're honored to be part of literacy in the NWT!