

NWT Literacy Council Training Calendar 2011-12

The NWT Literacy Council will be hosting several training workshops in the fall and winter of 2011/12. There are no fees for the workshops. For more information on these workshops or to sign up please call us at 873•9262 or 1•866•599•6758. You can also email us at nwtliteracy@nwtliteracy.ca.

Family Literacy Training Institute

Beaufort Delta: Inuvik -- Feb. 20 - 22, 2012

This regional training is for people who have not taken an introductory family literacy training workshop. Participants will learn the basics of family literacy and take part in workshops such as 1-2-3 Rhyme with Me, Family Literacy Nights, and Choosing Books. Workshops will be very hands on. Be prepared to sing and craft your way to a new understanding of family literacy.

Program Planning & Proposal Writing

Hay River -- Sept. 20 - 21, 2011

Yellowknife -- Dec. 8 - 9, 2011

Come and learn how to plan for projects in your community and write a funding proposal. At the end of the workshop participants will have written a funding proposal for a needed literacy project in their community.

Facilitation Skills

Hay River -- Sept. 19, 2011

Yellowknife -- Dec. 7, 2011

In this workshop you will get useful tips and tools for working with groups and for public speaking. Learn fun warm up activities, how to deal with difficult situations, and ways to get people involved.

Learning Kits Home Visitor Training

Yellowknife -- Nov. 14 - 17, 2011

These workshops are geared towards selected small communities with existing family literacy providers. They introduce providers to a new home visiting program that delivers learning kits to families with children 0-1, 2-3 or 4-5 years old.
